The First Pomona Valley Art Association Tri-Annual Show Declared a Success

PVAA's first Tri-Annual art show, by all appearances, is a success. The ongoing exhibit is held at the Claremont City Hall and runs to April. The public venue has space allowances for about 25 pieces of art. The show provides a unique exhibit for PVAA members who may not have other opportunities to display their artwork.

The opening reception was held the evening of January 4. Refreshments were served and a brief awards ceremony ensued.

Special thanks to the 'Tri-Annual Team' consisting of Sonia Sleeper, Su Cheatham and Don Markofski for their excellent work.
